

Child Passports (16 and 17 Year Olds)

1. A completed PC8 form (with section 11 completed by a guarantor). The guarantor must possess an Australian passport or be an Australian or non-Australian currently employed in an approved professional or occupational group. You may fill the application online (www.passports.gov.au) or you can obtain a form through the Embassy.
2. Applicant's/Parents' original passport.
3. Original birth certificate. (translated into English and authenticated by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Kuwait if done with Kuwaiti Translation Service).
4. Original Australian citizenship certificate, if applicable.
5. Original document that proves one of the parents' family names at birth (for example passport, marriage certificate or birth certificate).
6. Name change documents for applicant and their parents if applicable (see notes on page 2–3).
7. Two colour photographs, no older than 6 months, as per the Australian passport photograph guidelines (see notes below). One photo must be signed as a true photo of the applicant by the guarantor (see notes on page 4).
8. On page 85F of the application, under the photo section, there is a “proof of identity” combination that the applicant must meet and satisfy as explained in that section.

Please note that the applicant will need to attend in person along with a person who has parental responsibility for the applicant.
